

Upliftment of the masses

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 07 July 2007 09:54 - Last Updated Friday, 09 April 2010 13:18

The basic thinking he improvised for moral of the masses, was the idea that when we develop ourselves the world will be developed. If each and every person, was to transform their thoughts and character, the world would change.